CERTIFICATE IN COACHING THEORIES DIPLOMA OF TRANSPERSONAL COACHING

A Note to Prospective Professional Coaches

The Certificate in Coaching Theories and the Diploma of Transpersonal Coaching are training programs in transformational/ transpersonal coaching and life (including inner life) skills conducted by Nature Care College. These courses have significant experiential, skills based and potentially transformational aspects and components.

All students of Nature Care College who are participating in these courses are required to attend a minimum number of coaching sessions throughout the duration of their training.

Course	Minimum no. of Sessions	Type of Session must be
Certificate in Coaching Theories	4	Coaching
Diploma of Transpersonal Coaching	8	Coaching

The minimum required sessions must be completed in order to graduate and receive your printed qualification. Please consult your trainer for further information about these sessions.

Additional sessions are strongly recommended for all participants throughout the courses, particularly during times of personal challenge, and emerging awareness of the opportunity for breakthroughs.

Suitable coaches to address student needs as part of this coaching attendance requirement are those who hold recognised qualifications in coaching in order to exercise appropriate ethical and professional care of their clients.

If a student of either the Certificate in Coaching Theories or the Diploma of Transpersonal Coaching has engaged you for coaching, please complete the reverse side of this form at the end of each session in order to verify their attendance at sessions with you. Normal professional confidentiality agreements and arrangements apply.
